Foreword

This year marks not only the Silver Anniversary of Sunset and its annual, but also a whole new era in Sundial publication. The staff, in order to conform with the rapidly changing styles in yearbook make-up, have adopted the policy of more pictures and less copy. We hope that you will be pleased with the result.

Dedication

1925 ---- And a brand-new high school on the west side of the Trinity was taking its place as a leading school in the city. Ten of the people who saw this beginning are still with us. To these faculty members, Col. A. C. Burnett, Mr. James P. Cook, Miss Sarah C. Dinsmore, Miss Bess Hackett, Miss Bessie Jackson, Mr. Frank E. Lyons, Miss Grace Simpson, Miss Lucille Stephens, Miss Stella B. Warren, and Miss Kathleen Witherspoon, this twenty-fifth edition of the Sundial is dedicated.

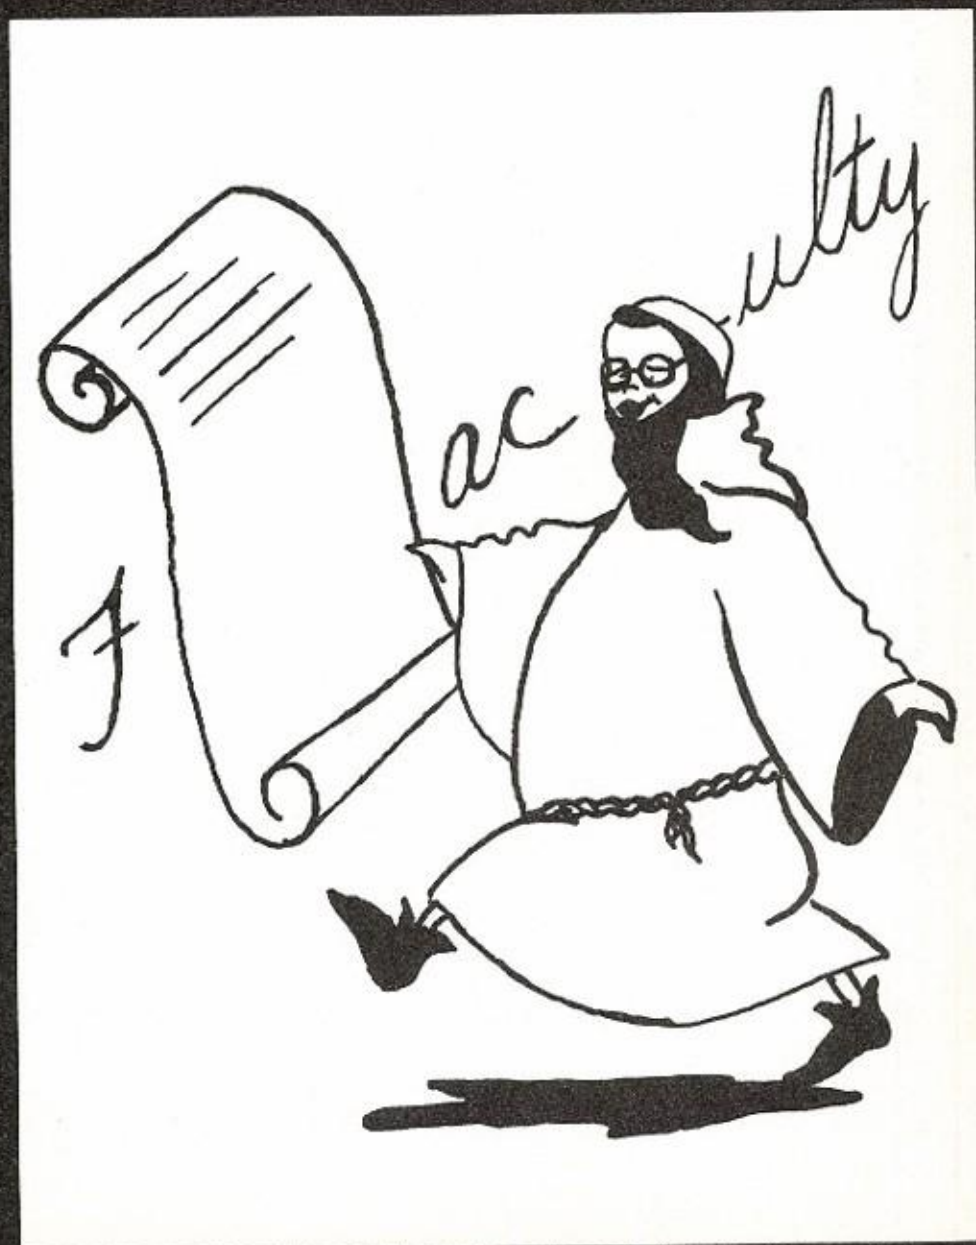

1927...

...And Sunset was really coming into her own. The Football Team brought home its first city championship trophy, and the STAMPEDE, only two years old, was judged the best high school newspaper in the state.

This was the era of the high school sororities, such as the W. W. W. 'S, the Yabons, and the A. Z. 'S; and all of them were meeting to decide whether they would wear pins or insignia sweaters. It was also the age of long black stockings, black bloomers, and white middy blouses. This was the regulation P. E. Uniform.

The editor of the SUNDIAL contracted scarlet fever just before Publication Day, And—Shades of 1950—"Chief" J. D. Chalk declared war on "Lunchroom Lounge Lizards".

“And all the men and women merely players”

1929...

...And Armistice Day, usually a school holiday, fell on Sunday, much to the chagrin of vacation-loving Sunsetters. Another trophy was put in the case when Sunset upset Woodrow to take the district championship. The basketball squad was even more successful, not losing a game until they met Denton in bi-district play. These outstanding athletic achievements won for the school temporary possession of the coveted grandpa of all awards, the Sanger Trophy, which was being given for the first time.

Scholastically, too, the Bisons were tops. They placed four state winners in Latin, and one of the graduating seniors received the Harvard Award.

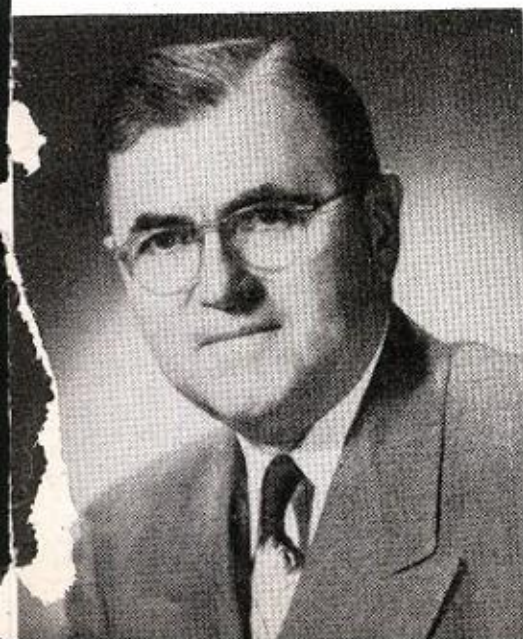

Favorite nicknames for the year were "Spud", "Suction", and "Sag"; and an anonymous faculty member was quoted in the Sundial as saying, "Let's walk like little fairies, girls. Mr. Lyons is having a class below us."

1931...

. . .And by this time the gym girls had been promoted to the now traditional black-and-white bloomers. (Time for a change?)

The question at the beginning of the year was "will there be a SUN-DIAL?" Bisons met in assembly and decided "Yes".

This was a big year in entertainment. The Texas Theatre gave a free show for students, and Sunset sponsored its own "review", starring Virginia Self, of present-day dancing fame. Mr. Michels, then head of the music department, was planning to buy a Bassoon for the orchestra.

That year, the school received several additions to the faculty, including a football coach named Ben Matthews and a struggling young commercial teacher named Robert H. McKay.

Another newcomer to the halls of Sunset that year was the now old and familiar Bison head, put up in the Fall Term.

We will all leave Sunset sooner or later...

but none of us will ever forget it.

HALL OF FAME

Certainly a school year as full of accomplishments as 1950 would produce an addition to the Sunset Hall of Fame. The Sundial proudly presents Mr. Warren Travis White, who in January, achieved national recognition as president of the American Association of School Administrators.

Mr. White was principal of Sunset for ten years and is still a frequent visitor, well known by all students. Congratulations, "Papa" White.

“
And one man in his time plays many parts!”

Active
ities

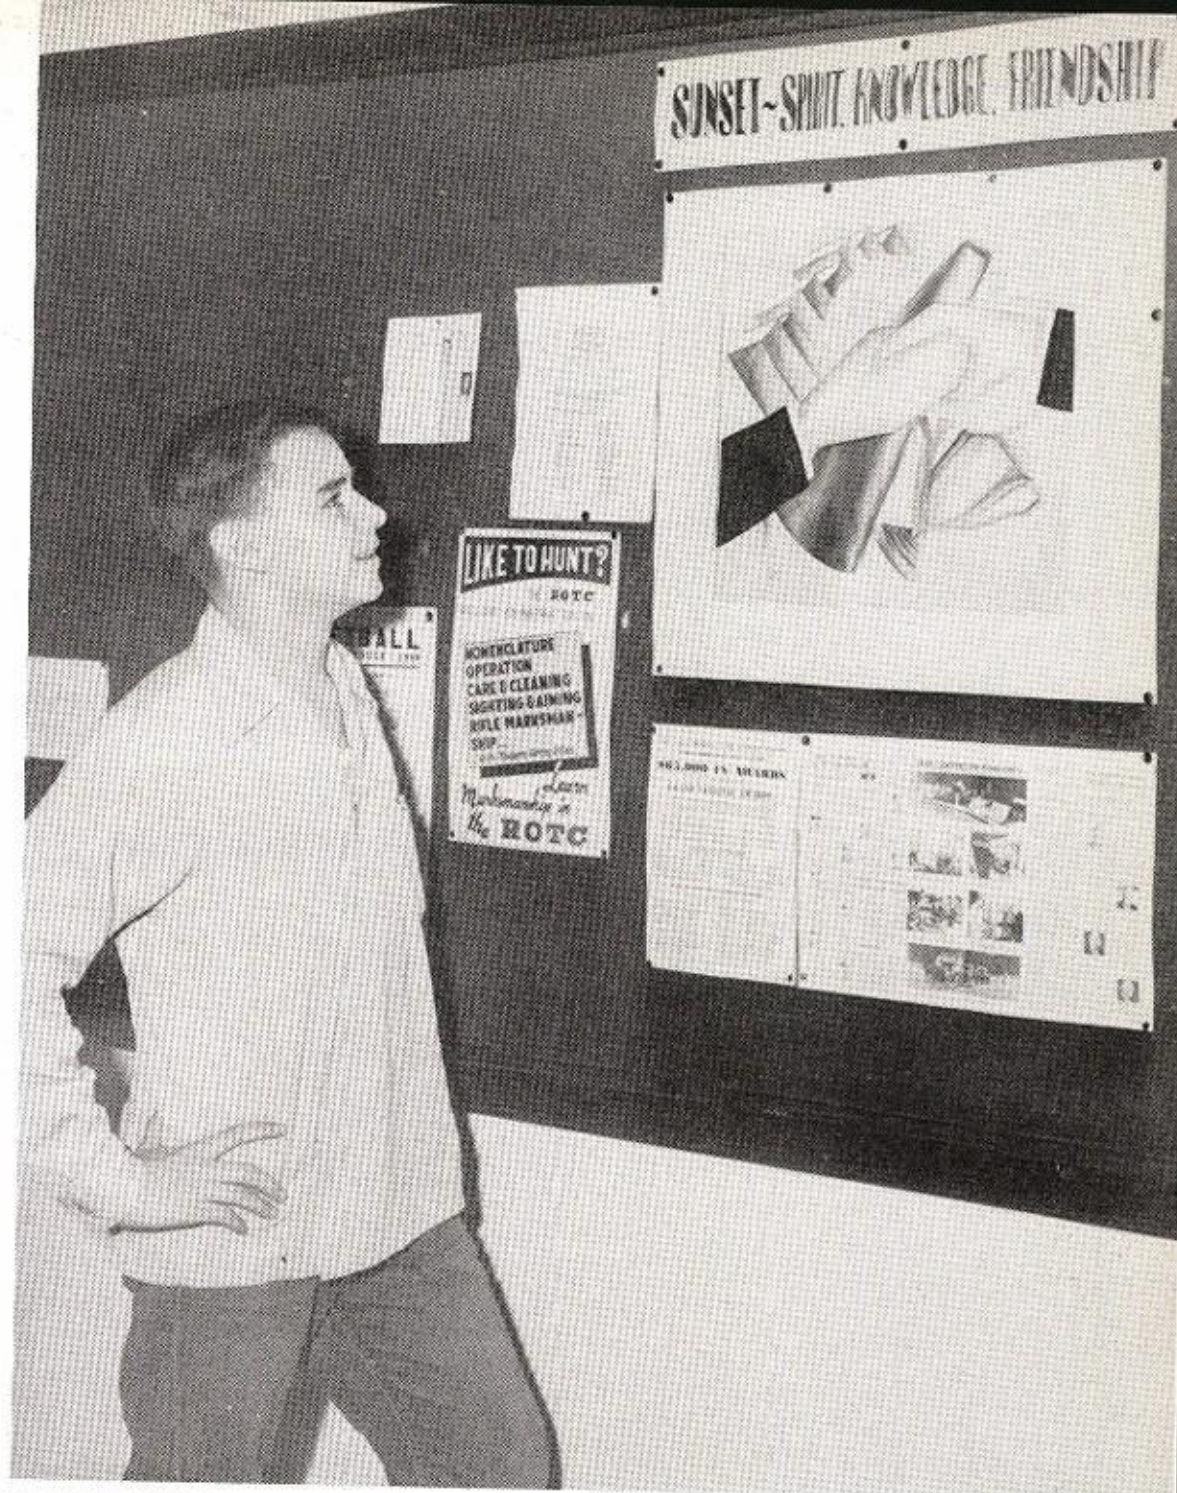

...Excitement! Half of the building blew up early one spring morning, and school had to continue for the rest of the year with pneumatic drills hammering away in the halls during class time.

1933...

Sunset again proved its leadership by producing a track star, Ross L. Bush, who was recognized as a national champion and state title holder in the 880-yard run. A picture of the team and coach that year is shown above.

Other highlights of the year included a new mural for the third floor hallway. Sunset defeated the Leopards 18-9 in football, and the Harvard award again went to a Sunset student.

Yessir ...

QUILL AND SCROLL

During the fall term Marae Gilchrist, Anne Newton, Bobby Pankonien, Carolyn Wood, Carla Topping, Jack Kimball, Mickey Geesling, Seth Young, Jane Bard, and Charles Locklin were admitted to the Sunset chapter of Quill and Scroll. Since that time Martha Atteberry has been recommended for membership.

Quill and Scroll is an international honorary society for high school journalists. The National organization sponsors contests in journalism, rates the school papers all over the United States, and gives various aids and services to the papers.

DISTRIBUTIVE EDUCATION

MRS. HELEN VAN VALKENBURG, Instructor

One of the most serious problems that a high school has to face, that of students who wish to quit school and find a job, has been met at Sunset through Distributive Education. In these classes, students are taught practical techniques of different types of employment and are allowed to put them into practice with part-time work during the afternoon.

We enjoy helping others.

The Sunset Junior Red Cross is a branch of the county organization and follows the line of activities laid out by the county planners. This consists of recreational programs for the various county hospitals, such as the Veterans Hospital, the orphans homes, and homes for the aged. The work also includes the preparation and shipment of gift boxes overseas and the exchange of albums and school correspondence with other member nations as well as states.

HUMAN RELATIONS

Mrs. George, Instructor

The class in Human Relations was organized two years ago at Sunset as a non-credit course. Its purpose is to teach young people how better to enjoy their life and how to meet the problems and demands of their futures as independent adults. The class was greeted enthusiastically by the girls, and a class is expected to be created for the boys next term. Membership is on a voluntary basis.

“At first the infant
mewling and puking in the nurse’s arms”

1935...

...And while the year was new exactly 1935 students were enrolled at Sunset. Something new was added that year, and not just one something either. The cheerleaders were supplied with new uniforms, a super-deluxe public address system was installed, and students listened to President Roosevelt's message to Congress. The Dads Club presented the school with a set of spot lights for the stage. Another new innovation was the after-game pep assemblies to celebrate victories.

While this was going on, a certain Sunsetter, often seen in the halls carrying a violin case, was elected president of El Sol, The Spanish Club sponsored by Miss Patterson. Some years after he was graduated, he returned to stay. Of course, this was Mr. H. H. Johns, Spanish Teacher.

“And then the whining school-

1937...

...And the Bison population was growing by leaps and bounds. In order to accommodate the 2442 students, new classrooms had to be provided, and an extra lunch period had to be added.

The first issue of the Stampede was a complete sell-out, and an eight-page edition was published just before January Graduation.

Newly-selected staff members of the SUNDIAL for the year 1937-38 are pictured above.

One of the year's most gigantic projects was a "Gymboree", put on to help raise $2,000 with which to pay for the "Elegant new Band Uniforms". (Familiar?)

Sunset lost one of her favorite people temporarily. Coach Bill Bushman left to become principal of Winnetka Elementary School. Speaking of football, a star Bison that year was named, believe it or not, Jimmy Sorrels.

1939...

...And another city football championship for Sunset; Bi-District went to Masonic Home of Ft. Worth. Sunsetters that year included a number of celebrities. Take, for instance, the winner of the title, "Most Popular Underclass Girl." She was the only girl on the Sunset Golf Team. She was Betty Jane Mims, now Betty Mims White, locally famous professional woman golfer. Then there was the pep squad's little mascot during the 1939 football season. Not yet World-Famous, she is nevertheless well-known to 1950 Bisons as Lyndon Briggs, 3A.

Topping them all, though, is the girl whose picture, showing her hugging an uncomfortable-looking rooster, appeared in the 1939 SUN-DIAL. Besides being a member of the student council, Monetta was a co-captain of the pep squad. She still appears before the camera often, but not in a chicken-embracing attitude, for she is none other than Linda Darnell, a Queen of the Movies and pride of Dallas.

...And for the first time, Sunset opened without the "fish". A new Junior high, W. E. Greiner, was built in the district; and all freshmen were forced to defer the pleasure of attending Sunset.

The mighty Bisons, coached by Herman Cowley and the new assistant, Byron Rhome, again stampeded with the District 8-AA football crown. That team starred a running back called "Sonny". He is better known now to Sunsetters as Horace Kemble, assistant coach.

Meanwhile, Rosemont Elementary School was overflowing with baby Bisons. Above is a picture of the High 2-Y Class, in which such bisonalities as Lynn Stanley, Charles Hess, Anne Willard, Norma Smith, Betty Jeanne Wright, Melvin Cook, Barbara Whaley, Carol Anderson, Charlie Jordan, Kathryn Goode, Nancy Matthews, and Martha Atteberry learned Readin', Writin', and 'Rithmetic.

1943...

...The World War was raging, as evidenced by signs of the times around Sunset. Editorials urging students to plant victory gardens and buy War Bonds appeared in the Stampede along with frequent announcements of a Sunsetter's entering the service. The War Honor Roll at this time was made up of over 1300 Bisons, including former principal and coach W. W. Bushman. The Junior Red Cross was sponsoring a magazine drive, and even students' dogs were doing their part by going on "War Diets" of meatless dog meal.

At this time, the faculty included the first school nurse at Sunset, Mrs. Willie Mae Caldwell.

Stampede sales hit a new high, the thrift cup was secured permanently at Sunset by a third consecutive win, and athletics again netted us the Sanger Trophy.

1945...

...The war was nearing its end, but not soon enough to prevent the tragic death in action of Sunset's beloved Bill Bushman.

This year, Herman Cowley, after coaching the Bisons into their sixth consecutive city championship, left. Miss Lona Belle Spruiell, English teacher and senior sponsor, was enjoying her last year at Sunset before being transferred to Adamson as Dean.

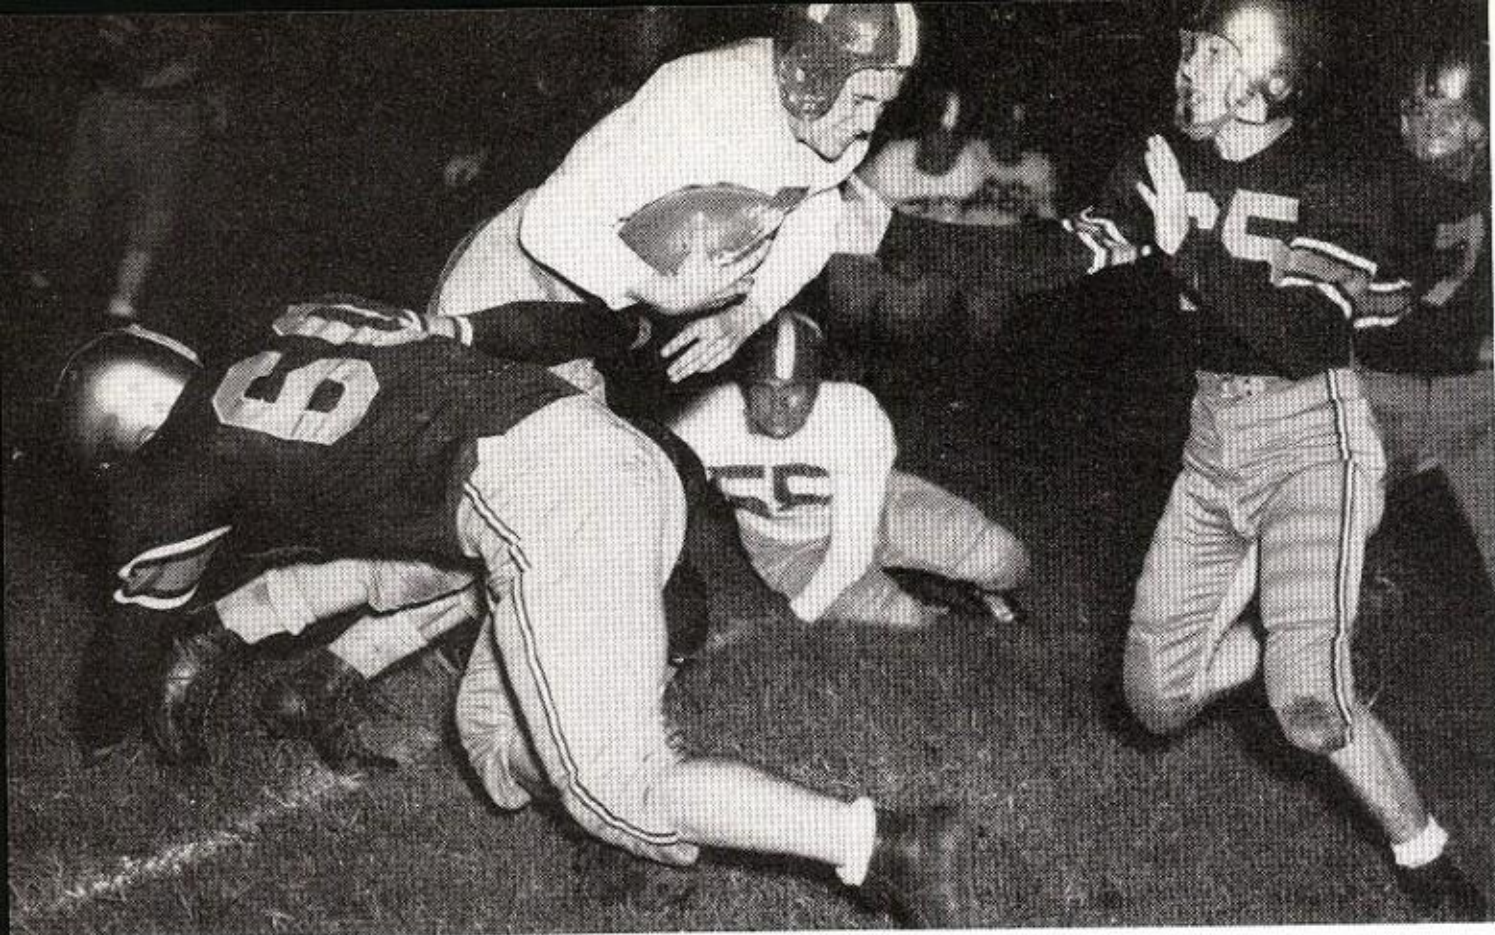

On the lighter side, the girls' volleyball teams, with such names as "The Lonely Hearts," "Poco Mocos," The "Plutocrats," and the Socialites," began a tournament. The exciting incident of the year was the escape of nine white mice from the Biology lab.

Sales of "Stop the Scots" tags for the football game with Hi Park brought in enough to buy a set of linguaphone records for the Spanish Department, and the Dallas Bond Queen title was won by Sunset's candidate, June Presley.

The football team ended the season in a triple tie with North Dallas, and Forest. The preceding season they lost the city crown to the Adamson Leopards. Enthusiasm over the games reached such a pitch that pep assemblies had to be taken outside, "Because of the danger of falling plaster".

The Tennis Team finished a good season, winning both Girls' Doubles and Boys' Singles in the city tournament. A picture of the players is shown above. Seniors will recognize Army Armstrong and Doris Jean O'Neal, who won state titles the following year.

Clay Searcy, twice-elected president of the student body, won a scholarship to Columbia University. He is pictured above, receiving a gift Bible from the Gideon Association, who presented everyone in school with a New Testament.

During the spring, cheerleaders were elected for the following year. This was the first time such an election had been held in the spring.

... It is a proving ground...

... on which we test our interests, and decide on a career.

1950...

...Brings Sunset's first Quarter-Century to a proper close.

A different type of SUNDIAL, Student-Planned pep assemblies, bright new band uniforms, freshly painted walls, dozens of things to form a good beginning for the Epoch now approaching have come out of this year.

We've won our share of awards and honors, perhaps more than our share. We've served as an example of the American High School for an English Schoolteacher and a number of Asiatic Students. We've proved that a detention hall is not necessary to keep 1400 Sunsetters in line. We've shown that we can take defeat and disappointment as well as victory. We feel that we've exhibited good sportsmanship in all our activities, at school and away.

It's a wonderful feeling we have when we're able to say all these things.

It's been a full year, all in all; Now we can all puff out our vests and say that we're proud to be a Sunsetter, a part of the Bison traditions of the best, always the best.

... The warm air of friendliness and cheer...

... and the feeling that results from good companionship...

Maybe it's the earnestness...

... and the ability to get the most out of life...

... in every way.

*Maybe
it's the endurance,...*

... and "grin-and-bear-it" sportsmanship.

Perhaps it's the way in which we tend to our school's business.

Maybe
it's the way ...

... we conduct ourselves, ...

... without lessening our enjoyment of the occasion.

Maybe it's the reverence ...

... and sense of values.

February 27, 1950

To the Student Body:

"A good book is the precious life-blood of a master spirit embalmed and treasured up on purpose to a life beyond life."

This book that you and I have just finished reading is a treasured book because it embodies the work of young men and young women who have decided upon a genuine motive for living.

"Spirit, Knowledge, and Friendship" are words that give power to ideals, and every great achievement is the outgrowth of an ideal that carries with it purposeful persistence.

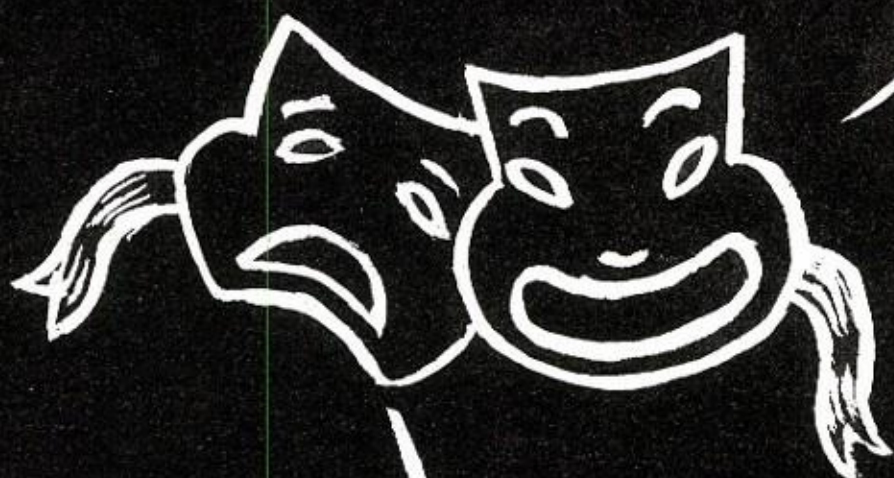

"We Enjoy Helping Others" will not yield to disappointments, criticisms, handicaps, and insignificant failures; but if we do well whatever we undertake, it will teach us to make sacrifices and endure hardships.

"And let no quarrel nor no brawl to come Taint the condition of this present hour."

Sincerely yours,

R. H. McKay
Principal
